

A simple Dream

I often dream of a mega event where all nations leaders with their children and grandchildren celebrate disarmament of all nuclear weapons and all nuclear sources in the name of peace.

Biodegradable balloons and white doves covering the skies dance joyfully to orchestral music, one of the most important celebrations of mankind.

Guillermo Silveira